NORWOOD DEMONSTRATION SCHOOL IMPROVEMENTS.

3.1.73

The Norwood Demonstration School is to be further upgraded by the State Government, the Premier, Mr. Dunstan, announced today.

Mr. Dunstan, who is House of Assembly Member for Norwood, visited the school during the holiday period to inspect completed external improvements at the School.

He said they gave children there much more room - and better facilities - for play and sports.

The improvements were made after discussions between Mr. Dunstan, the school staff and committee and the Education Minister, Mr. Hudson.

The Premier said the new programme provided for a complete upgrading of the school.

There was a second reason for Mr. Dunstan's visit - to say farewell to Mr. C.T. Hall, the headmaster, who has now moved to another headmastership.
